“Kulture” Returns!

Glacier Canyon Lodge Conference Center, Wisconsin Dells

Friday, February 10, 2012

9:15 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Due to the overwhelming response to their presentation at last year’s conference, Kulture is coming back in 2012. With two different presentations they will be there all day! Make sure you have the opportunity to participate by registering for convention now! Online registration is available here!

The 2012 Elections: Winning the Battle for Free Enterprise & Merit Shop

In this session you will explore how outside forces influence the elections and how you can too. Ask yourself: How are things shaping up for the 2012 elections? What if Obama gets re-elected? What are the labor unions trying to do politically? How are the unions utilizing grassroots activities and raising funds? What can you do to counter the union political influence? How can you legally communicate with your employees regarding how politicians affect their work? What is GOTV and why is it key for business owners in the 2012 election?

Remaining Union Free

Kulture is a company focused on improving the culture of American business; however, there are times when the relationship between employees and their employer become strained. Tensions can mount costing the employment relationship in lost productive time, increased turnover, or increased expenses in warding off unnecessary employment litigation or unionization attempts. Kulture is an employee and labor relations consulting firm that specializes in identifying, addressing and resolving workplace issues. This team is among the most sought-after consultants in the nation by both employers and the law firms that represent them.
